A particular pet ours in the line of poetles gema is and always has been the " Ode to a Skylark," by James Hogg, the Ettrick Shephord; untural, graceful, simple and yet reaching the highest sphere of portical beauty it is always fresh, always attractive. A short time since our by way of comparison, so rich in imagery, so rare and radient in idea and phrase that we reproduce it, giving proper credit to our friend's good taste, as another pet, and is it not a beauty T TO A SKYLARK.

BY SHELLEY.

Hall to thee, blithe spirit ! Bird thou nevet wert, That from heaven, or near it, Pourest thy full heart In profuse strains of unpremedituted art.

Higher still and higher, From the earth thou springest Like a cloud of fire; The blue deep then wingest, and singing still dost soar, and soaring singest.

In the golden lightning Of the sunken sun, O'er which clouds are brightening, Thou doet float and run; Like an untodied joy whose race is just bogun

The pale purple even Melts around thy flight : Like a star of heaven, In the broad daylight Thou art unseen, but yet I hear thy shrill delight

Keen as are the arrows Of that silver sphere, Whose intense lamp narrows In the white dawn clear, Until we hardly see, we fee! that it is there.

All the curth and air With thy voice is loud, As, when night is bare, From one lonely cloud The moon rains out her beams, and heav overflowed.

VII. What then art we know not; What is most like thee? From rainbow-clouds there flow not Drops so bright to see, As from thy presence showers a rain of melody.

VIII. Like a post Eidden In the light of thought, Singing hymns unbidden, Till the world is wrought To sympathy with hopes and fears it heeded not:

Emerson Street Skating Park.

Having started out last year under decidedly adverse circumstances and yet made their venture a success and a credit, as well, to our go-ahead city, the proprietors of the Emerson Street Skating Park have felt warranted in attention was singularly called to snother Lark, making improvements upon their premises which will render them as extensive, comfortable and attractive the coming winter as any of like character in Michigan, to say the least.

One hundred and fifty feet of shed has been run from the ticket office along the west side of the Park, at the termination of which is the music stand, centrally located, with a small tenement in the rear which will be comfortably warmed when the weather is too inclement for long continued performance outside, to 1000 short of a full vote in the Strong posts have also been put up at proper intervals all around the Park, the buildings, and the premises are ways holds out weight. lighted, warmed and fitted up through-

TIME.-The proprietors of the Emerson street Skating Park, who it is supposed are very like the balance of creation, and

" Take no note of time save by its loss," have finally been kindly furnished something in that especial line to "make note on." A thief broke into their house on Sunday night, and finding very little wherewith to satisfy his cupidity, left in disgust, improvising for his grand finale an exhibition of the most marvellous flight of time on record. He took the clock, took it too "on tick," without stipulating as to the length of credit, took it under adverse circumstances, for it was running cheerfully towards the clear sunlight, while he was running in the groove that leads only to darkness and destruction; took it out of pure cussedness, for what satisfaction can such as he derive from a piece of mechanism that is continually reminding him of the steady approach of justice which is sure to overtake him, and is not convertible because it won't go if

SENSIBLE REGULATION .- In Canton Appenzell, Switzerland, says a correspondent of the New York Observer, every evening at half-past eight o'clock the church bell is rung, and all the children must immediately go home. If they are abroad after that, they are taken into custody by the patrol of the streets, and either delivered to their parents, or, if frequent offenders, they are kept in durance over night. This is an admirable regulation, which I commend to imitation in free America. It is adopted here in a pure democracy, and works admirably well. In the cities it would be a great moral life preserver, worth millions of dollars and as many souls knocked down under the hammer?

EXTERPRISING.—The Daily Enter prise of Nov. 26, had telegraphic dispatches from New York dated Nov. 5, and from San Francisco dated Nov. thirty-fourth. A trifle brisk on the Pacific item, but the average was about as usual.

that would be saved by the plan.

PROF. OSCANYAN'S LECTURE.-The date of Prof Oscanyan's locture before the Young Men's Associations has been fixed at December 13. The New York Observer says of this distinguished lecturer: "The lecture itself is full of valuable and interesting matter, and the opportunity of hearing it and seeing the exibition of the manners and customs of the women of Turkey, ought to be embraced by all, especially by ministers, teachers, and others interested in scripture illustration. Ladies will find a new field of thought and

FALLING OFF OF THE VOTE.-The official canvass of the vote of 1866 on State Senator in this county, as compared with that of 1864, with the soldiers' vote counted in, shows a decrease of 56 on the vote of the county. In East Saginaw there is an increase of 222 over the vote of 1864. The canvass, taking into consideration the known increase of population, demonstrates that we were from 800

CLAY & LESTER'S VEGETABLE HAIR RESTOR-ER.—This valuable regetable compound, pre-pared by Clay & Lester, must be applied to be appreciated. Being purely regetable in its in-gredients, it is perfectly harmless, and restores gray bair to its original condition, cradicating every particle of dandruff and prevents the hair from falling out; imparts a rich glossy lustre that other so-called restoratives fait to do.
